DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Claims 1-3, 21 and 15-32 are withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b) as being drawn to a nonelected invention, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Election was made without traverse in the reply filed on October 31, 2006.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:
The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.
3. Claims 4-10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In response to the restriction requirement applicant elected claims 4-11, 13 and 14. However, it is not clear what applicant considers to be the subject regarded as the elected invention. Claim 4 depends from claim 3 which was not elected and apparently not elected as being the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention within the election. Claims 5-7 have similar inconsistencies in that these claims depend from claim 2.

In claim 10, the word "means" is preceded by the word(s) "some" in an attempt to use a "means" clause to recite a claim element as a means for performing a specified function. However, since no function is specified by the word(s) preceding "means," it is impossible to determine the equivalents of the element, as required by 35 U.S.C. 112, sixth paragraph. See Ex parte Klumb, 159 USPQ 694 (Bd. App. 1967). It is also unclear what the scope and content of Japanese foam type is or how this foam is different than other foams.

In claim 11, "the other wall" and "the opposite wall" has no antecedent basis. Also in as much as a radial direction is not defined it is not clear what can be construed as this direction.

Claim 13 depends from claim 12, which is not considered the subject matter regarded as applicant's invention within the restriction requirement.

In claim 14, the alternative language makes the claim indefinite. It is unclear if the container includes parallel or roughly parallel wall. It is not clear from the claimed disclosure what is considered "roughly" parallel. It is not known what the language "and any rib that is applied on, or by, radially external wall of the container" adds, if anything.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

4. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(a) the invention was known or used by others in this country, or patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country, before the invention thereof by the applicant for a patent.

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

5. Claim 10 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Crooks (Patent no. 4,906,118). A packaged is ventilated by openings 18a formed therein which receives some means of cosmetic and/or pharmaceutical composition in the form of a lotion. Figure 5 is a porous composition taken to be the sponge or Japanese foam type.

6. Claims 11, 13 and 14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(a, b) as being anticipated by WO 93/36985. In figures 12-14 a annular rib defined by 132 defining a distance d greater than the radial extent of the wall from which the rib extends, see figure 14.

As to claim 13, an annular rib 142 is arranged on a radial wall 134 of the cover opposite the internal wall having rib 132.

As to claim 14, two roughly parallel walls are defined by wall 130 and the opposite bottom wall.

7. Claims 11, 13 and 14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(a, b) as being anticipated by Williams (Patent no. 3,117,691). In figures 1 and 2 an annular rib defined by 17 defining a distance d greater than the radial extent of the wall from which the rib extends.

As to claim 13, an annular rib 14 is arranged on a radial wall 15 of the cover opposite the internal wall having rib 17.

As to claim 14, two roughly parallel walls are defined by wall 6 and the opposite bottom wall.

REPLY BY APPLICANT OR PATENT OWNER TO THIS OFFICE ACTION

8. “In order to be entitled to reconsideration or further examination, the applicant or patent owner must reply to every ground of objection and rejection in this Office action. The reply must present arguments pointing out the specific distinctions believed to render the claims, including any newly presented claims, patentable over any applied references. The applicant’s or patent owner’s reply must appear throughout to be a bona fide attempt to advance the application or the reexamination proceeding to final action. A general allegation that the claims define a patentable invention without specifically pointing out how the language of the claims patentably distinguishes them from the references does not comply with the requirements of this section. The reply must be reduced to writing (emphasis added)”, see 37 CFR 1.111 (b) & (c), M.P.E.P. 714.02.

Pointing out specific distinctions means clearly indicating in the written response what features/elements or distinctions have been added to the claim/claims, where support is found in the specification for such recitations and how these features are not shown, taught, obvious or inherent in the prior art.

If no amendments are made to claims as applicant or patent owner believes the claims are patentable without further modification, the reply must distinctly and specifically point out the supposed errors in the examiner’s action and must respond to every ground of objection and rejection in the prior Office Action in the same vain as given above, 37 CFR 1.111 (b) & (c), M.P.E.P. 714.02.

Art Unit: 3728

The examiner also points out, due to the change in practice as affecting final rejections, older decisions on questions of prematurity of final rejection or admission of subsequent amendments do not necessarily reflect present practice. "Under present practice, second or any subsequent actions on the merits shall be final, except where the examiner introduces a new ground of rejection that is neither necessitated by applicant's amendment of the claims nor based on information submitted in an information disclosure statement filed during the period set forth in 37 CFR 1.97(c)" (emphasis mine), see MPEP 706.07(a).
